

HELP! I'm drowning here!

As you can see, it's been well over a month since I have gotten an "Inspired Message" out. My days have all just run one into another and I have been bombarded by a multitude of life's little events. Appointments, travel, grandchildren, assisting others with their needs, work (no I haven't retired yet), house guests, planning a baby shower and just the everyday chores. I am drowning in life and I need your help! Throw me a rope. Please!

I have been writing for years and now it's your turn. You don't have to be an eloquent author or have some great epiphany to write a few words of inspiration. It can be a few sentences or several pages. All of us have been blessed in one way or another. Throw me a rope...tell me your story!

Here are a few things you could write about:

- Think of a time when you faced an adverse situation, how it was resolved and how you think God played a part in it. It doesn't have to be a life changing event, just something God did for you.
- Tell me about a time when you felt really down, and something made you smile.
- People come in and out of our lives. Tell me about someone who inspired or encouraged you in some way.
- Beauty is all around us. Where have you been that was absolutely breathtaking, recognizing the world that God created for us.
- Whatever you write, make it from the heart.

Once I hear from you, I'll compile an e-mail, or e-mails, to share your story(s) with my readers. You see, you just never know who could be blessed by what you write. If you like, you can even do it anonymously.

To make it easy for you, you can send me your story in one of two ways. Click Here for a "Fill In" form or click "Reply" on this e-mail. If you reply by e-mail, let me know if I can use your name (First, last or both) or if you wish to be anonymous. It will be published just as you write it. (Don't worry, I will spell check it.) If you want to go "old school" you can send it by snail mail to the address in the footer.

Won't you take a few minutes to throw me a rope and share your "Inspired Message"?

Looking forward to hearing from you and being blessed by your story.

Cindy Lee Nonnemacher
Author